Situated in the vibrant Central Business District of Hong Kong, the workspace provides private workstations and a fully equipped meeting room at a fixed cost. Optimal comfort is maintained with efficient air conditioning, while round-the-clock entry and stringent security protocols offer a secure and flexible office setting. The high-speed Wifi ensures smooth daily business activities, and the provision of furnished spaces for meetings and conferences promotes effective collaboration.

Occupying a historical site, the China Insurance Group Building has stood since 1967 and underwent significant renovations in 2002 and 2019. The building's accessibility is enhanced by three elevators, connecting the ground level to the 19th through 29th floors. It offers a range of facilities that include direct-to-lift entry, advanced telecoms and IT systems, continuous CCTV surveillance, expert office cleaning, perpetual security, open access, and well-appointed meeting rooms.
